

iPad Certification

DataDirector is now certified on the iPad[®]. DataDirector users can now easily access their data on their iPad.

iPad Compatibility

Use the following operating systems and browsers with to view DataDirector on the iPad. For optimal viewing, it is recommended that the iPad be used in the horizontal position.

Operating System	Version
iOS	6 and 6.1
Browser	Version
Google Chrome for iOS	25
Safari	6

Recommendations for DataDirector Tasks

Using DataDirector on the iPad is ideal for performing the following tasks:

- Creating assessments (Answer Sheet, Item Bank and Summary)
- Searching for assessments
- Viewing assessments and assessment reports
- Sharing or deleting assessments
- Administering an online test
- Viewing, deleting, moving, or hiding folders
- Creating simple Items
- Searching standards and items
- Creating, sharing and deleting test series
- Creating or viewing programs
- Viewing assessments through programs
- Searching for students
- Viewing prebuilt reports
- Viewing or creating custom reports
- Viewing the dashboard
- Using the auto test generator
- Scheduling an automated data export

Using a laptop or a desktop computer is recommended for performing the following tasks:

- Importing or exporting data
- Scanning students answer documents
- Using GradeCam*
- Creating items with lengthy text, tables, images, or requiring extensive formatting
- Using the Admin tools

* A new iPad app. enabling the use of GradeCam in DataDirector will be available soon!